

I would take a fool to not let XM Radio broadcast weather reports and traffic reports all this service is doing is providing safty for its listners and its on command no listing to some stupid DJ telling a joke thats not even funny and then your either stuck in bad traffic or weather that could have been prevented.I'm sorry that Xm Radio is providing a high quality service that no one else can provide and no one should be able to stop them.